Police Looking for a Negro Who Robbed a Lady.

A report was received in the city late yesterday afterneon that a young negro, dark skin, aged about twenty years, had held up a Mrs. Lane, near Seven Pines, and robbed her of a small amount of money. Mrs. Lane was on her way home when the negro suddenly appeared and demanded her money.

She screamed and ran, and the report is that the negro grabbed her pocketbook and made off.

Few of the particulars could be learned last night, but a description of the negro was left at the First Police Station.

He was described as being about five feet seven inches in height, dark in color, and wore a black cap, with a strap around it, and had on black pants.

The county and city police are looking for the man.

At first it was thought he was the same man who figured in the Barton Heigh case, but the descriptions do not tally whither they were directed by the hand of authority.

Even at this last moment was the episcopal voice raised, as it has been throughout the session, in the interests of peace and harmony and brotherly love. It cannot be denied that Dr. Sm th and Dr. Kelly, two of the distinguished transfers, have met with no hearty welcome from the Virginia ministers. The Bishop touched delicately upon this. He spoke to terms of high praise of the two outsiders, and with great effect told things that showed how these two consecrated men had come, not, as many supposed, to gobble up the plums, but to go to any field to which they might be gent. The fervent "amen" of Dr. Hannon expressed the sentiments of many in the conference. As for Dr. Kelly, the Bishop plainly incleated that he had seriously thought more than once of sending him elsewhere than to court-Street.

The Lists Read.

The Lists Read.

The Lists Read.

At last the moment had come to which the thoughts of all had long ago traveled in advance. The bishop drew from his pecket the dreaded and desired lists and began to read.

For the next half hour the silence was simest unbroken, save for the voice from the pulpit. With intent faces the ministers sat, some of them trembling, awaiting the word that would send them to high station or to low, as the case might be. Now and then the hand-clap of some one in the audience would announce the gratification of a long cherished hope; one in the audience would announce the gratification of a long cherrished hope; again a minister would bury his head in his arms with mingled emotions sacred unto himself. Suddued applause broke forth now and then, as when the pastor of Centenary, Richmond, was named for the presiding eldership of Charlottesville. At another moment, there would involve account from some brother a the presiding eldership of Charlottesville. At another moment, there would involuntarily escape from some brother a startled exclamation as some revolutionary change would send him to a new field. Such was the case when Dr. Handon was named for Trinity. The customary "amen" was forgotten in the amazement: something that resembled a grunt came instead.

On and on the bishop went, and so freat was the upneaval that nobody knew what to expect. The rustle of leaves, as the brethren chased after him through the conference minutes, was all that disturbed the silence. Finally he was done. The clock pointed to the hour of moon when the words of the doxology—"Praise God from whom all biessings flow"—rang out upon the air. The benediction was solemnly pronounced, and the work was over. In a few moments more the church was empty; outgoing trains carried brethren to all four points of the compass.

All Are Pleased.

All Are Pleased.

Not one, but all express utmost satisfaction with the session. The bishop leaves with the love and esteem of the entire ministry. Never before was there held a more peaceful and harmonious gathering of Methodists, and to him this happy fact is largely due.

So far as the appointments for some. Richmond has cause to feel gratified. Dr. W. J. Young, the leading man in the denomination in the State, goes to Centenary; Dr. Johnson and Mr. Spooner, two of the ministerial powers, remain. She secures also Dr. Simpson, another shining light, and retains Mr. Betty and Dr. John Hannon. The change of the latter from Union Station to Trinity is the conference sensation. The matter is on every tip.

There are some touching cases that are some touching cases that might be recalled. The ministerial path is not always a bed of roses. The writer is informed of an appointment that sends a family of six to a hard and stony field that pays $318 per year, not including the special missionary appropriation. side special missionary appropriation.

Last year this minister, who has incurred expenses and indebtedness through illness, struggled to make both ends meet with about $700. This sum now seems like a small fortune. Notning more pathetic can be imagined than the task before this young and able-bodied minister of bearing to his wife and children the news of the hard winter before them. It is a country circuit to which he goes, long spreadout, and he must keep a horse and buggy. Nearly one-third of his income will be required to support his horse.

The Business Session.

The Business Session. The Business Session.

The last day of conference began with clouds and rain that rapidly disappeared before an advancing sun. The church was soon full of ministers, laymen and ladies, and the service opened most auspiciously. The final lecture by the bishop was greaty enjoyed; it paid a high tribute to Jesse Lee, of Virginia, the pioneer Methodist preacher. The bishop then opened the session with the doxology.

Checks Distributed.

An interesting feature of the early morning was the distribution on the conference floor of a hundred or more checks to the claimants on the super-annuated fund. The checks represented an amount of money aggregating $14.751.86. All business was suspended during the hour consumed by the distribution of the checks.

Several small reports were submitted and adopted without discussion. Chief among these was a paper namins the Rev. George E. Booker to preach the annual sarmon next year, with the Rev. J. N. ## GENERAL PRIMARY BILL MAY SOON BE CALLED

Now that Benator Keezell has returned to the city and three is a fairly good attendance of Senators, it is expected that the Barkedale-Keezell general primary bill will soon be called up and pressed for passage by the Sanate. In the matter of the election and nomination of United States Senators, the bill is very simple, merely providing for a primary, by means of which the people of each House and Senate district may instruct their candidates for the General Assembly for whom it is desired they shall vote for Senators. The chief feature of the plan, and one which appeals to all, is that the burden of expense of a State primary is assumed by the State, not by the candidates themselves, thus remeiving the chief defect of the Democratic party primary blan. "I know," says Prof. Munyon, "that disordered stomachs are responsible for nearly all bodily ills. Where a person eats heartily and digests his food properly, the blood is vitalized and enriched, which sets the liver and kidneys and all the vital organs into active and healthful operation. Where the stomach is strong the blood is strong; where the blood is strong nerves are strong; where the nerves are strong the kidneys, heart and lungs and liver are strong. In my opinion most people die from starvation; that is, they starve the blood, they starve the nerves and the general tissues of the whole body. Not that people do not fill their stomach with nourishing food, but because what they put into the stomach does not properly digest, does not properly assimi

WHITE RIBBON REMEDIES

(By Associated Press.)

CINCINATI, OHIO, November 17.—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union to-day adopted resolutions which declare for complete prohibition, denounce sysems for regulation of vice, memorialize city officials of St. Louis to enforce laws against immoral houses during the World's Fair, favor woman's suffrage, caution the public against medicines ad-vertised as "white ribbon remedies," and ask Congress to prohibit the importation of opium into the Philippines.

of opium into the Philippines.

On polygamy, the resolutions say: "We believe that polygamy is both taught and practiced in the United States, and there is abundant proof to substantiate the claim that Utah has broken faith with the United States in this matter. We ask Congress to provide for an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forever prohibiting polygamy. We also believe that an aposite of the Mormon hierarchy cannot be a loyal citizen of this republic because of his vows to another organization, separate and distinct from the United States of America, and not subordinate to it, but claiming superiority over it. We, therefore, ask that Mr. Reed Smoot be excluded from the United States on the ground that his highest allegiance is given to a government other than that of the United States."

Monroe's body had fain twenty-sever pears in a vault in Marble Cemetery, New York city.

To-day the remains of his wife and younger daughter, Maria Gouvernour, will be brought to Richmond to rest beside him. For nearly three-quarters of a century the body of Mrs. Monroe has been in the grave at Oak Hill, and many years the daughter has been beside her. All that now exists of their ashes will reach the Byrd Streat Station, this city, at 11:55 A. M. to-day in a private car attached to a regular train of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad from Washington. Appropriately, nearly all of the living descendants of the two ladies—twenty-eight in all—will accompany the remains.

Superintendent John R. Hooper, of Hollywood Cemetery, who yesterday exhumed the bodies, will have custody of them until the arrival here. Messrs Foster funeral directors, will meet the train and convey the caskets to the cemetery.

Doubtless many Richmond people will assemble at the depot to meet the train. Among them will be the honorary and active pall-bearers, all men of prominence in the city, and representatives of all the societies of the city, whose aim is the study of history. The procession will be formed at the depot, and will move directly to Hollywood, where the only exercises in connection with the reinferment will take place. Those, simple and impressive, will be conducted by Bishop Gibson, of the Episcopal Dlocese of Virginia. After lüncheon the funeral party will return to the National Capital.

The event to occur to-day has awakened renewed interest in the busy life of Pregident Monroe. Judge Baverley R.

As a very young man he embarked in the Continental army, and while occupying a position exalted for his youth, but very subordinate in rank, he was seriously wounded at the battle of Trenton or Princeton. He afterwards studied law, and began the practice of his profession in Fredericksburg. His bachelor uncle, Judge Joseph Jones, a resident. I believe, of the county of King George, was the foster father of two nephsws, Mr. Monroe and his cousin, Hon. John Dawson, who for many years represented the Fredericksburg District in Congress. To his tuition and patronage Mr. Monroe's preparation and introduction to the bar was due. After his return from William and Mary College, Mr. Monroe began the practice of law in Fredericksours. When I was a boy the office in which he first profered his services to the public as a candidate for practice was still standing.

DEBATE ON CUBAN BILL

House Devotes the Day to Hearing Many Speeches on the Measure.

NATION'S HONOR INVOLVED

Mayor-Elect McClellan in His Valedictory, Points Out What He Thinks is Nation's Duty.

day resumed consideration of the Cuban bill. The only notable incidents of the day were the speeches of Mr. Stevens, a Republican member from Minnesota, who spoke in opposition to the bill, and the speech of Mayor-elect McClellan, of New

Mr. Stevens opposed the measure for reciprocity with Cuba at the last session. To-day, he argued that the bill was a "cruel blow" at one of the most promising agricultural districts of this country, and that the measure will imperil our vast foreign trade. Mr. McClellan delivered his valedictory to the House, making an argument in favor of the bill, during the course of which, he criticised the administration of General Wood in Cuba-Four hours were devoted to-day to debate on the measure, ten members speak ing. Under the rule, two days more are given for speeches. Mr. McClellen said there was an argument in favor of the enactment of the bill, which rose above all others, and involved the duty and the honor of the United States. "As we have made it impossible for Cuba," said Mr. McClellan, "to seek alliances elsewhere, it is a duty we cannot shirk to permit her to enter into the closest political and commercial relations with us."

He said the liberal concessions made by

Cuba in the treaty "should certainly permit the United States to obtain a vir-tual menopoly of the Cuban market." WHY SHE HAS EXISTED.

WHY SHE HAS EXISTED.

In the course of his remarks, Mr. Mc-Ciellan said: "Two years ago, Cuba was on the verge of bankruptcy, and that she has escaped ruin is not due to any effort on our part. That she has been able to exist at all during the last two years, is because of two reasons: First, the change in her government. Second, the marketing of an increased amount of tobacco and sugar.

"In 1902, the spectacular and extrava gant rule of General Wood, having sad-died upon Havana for ten years, the infamous gambling monopoly of the So-ciedad Anonima Jsi Alui, gave place to the conservative, economical, sensible and business-like administration of President The event to occur to-day has awakened renewed interest in the busy life of President Monroe. Judge Beverley R. Wellford, Jr., contributes the accompanying sketch of him:

James Monroe was born in Westmoreland county, not very many miles from the birthplace of George Washington, on the Potomac, and of James Madison, on the Rappahannock.

After quoting figures, Mr. McClellan said: "In other words, under President Estrada-Palma, the cost of government is over seven million dollars less per annum than it was under General Wood." In conclusion, Mr. McClellan said: "In other words, under President Estrada-Palma, the cost of government is over seven million dollars less per annum than it was under General Wood." In conclusion, Mr. McClellan said: "In other words, under General Wood." In conclusion words, under General Wood." In conclusion said: "In other words, unde the spectacle of insoleral lobby practically dominating the Congress, we propose to partially fulfill our pledge to Cuba by giving her this tuppenny measure of re lief, that is warranted not to offend the susceptibilities of the most sensitive trust in existence. We have made a solemn promise to Cuba, If a Republican majority in its might is only willing to partially keep that promise, the blame and the shame rest with the Republican party."

In closing, Mr. McClellan said: "The bill is unquestionably a breach in the wall of protection." He received the applause of his colleagues when he concluded, his colleagues when he concluded,

NOT IN HARMONY.
Mr. Crumpacker (Republican, Indiana), said reciprocity was not in harmony with the tariff polloy of this country as exemplified in the last two Republican tariff bills. He said if we are to have a permanent reciprocity policy we should put a tax on non-competitive articles that we might have something upon which to nesoulate.

Mr. Clark (Democrat, Missouri) prefaces Mr. Clark (Democrat, Missour) prefaced his remarks by saying he believed it the flist duty of a Democrat to congratulate the Republicans that light was breaking in on them. Speaking of the rule cutting off amendments to the bill, Mr. Clark said the probability is that the Democrats will control the next House and elect the next President, adding: "The more of those iron-clad rules you ram down our throats, the more you will have rammed down yours."

throats, the more you will have rammed down yours."

Mr. Clark then quoted what he termed Republican battle cries. "Your Uncle Mark invented let well enough alone. He afterwards converted this into 'stand pat,' and then the able chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Payne, added a little 'keep on letting well enough alone,' and then when your Uncle Mark was being punched over the ropes out in Ohlo by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt and Senator Forsker, he added, 'For God's sake, let 'keep on letting well enough alone."

Steering Committee's Work.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The Democratic Steering Committee met to-day and spent three hours in filling vacancies on committees awarded to the minority party. No definite agreement has been reached, though it is known several changes have been made on important committee assignments. It has been decided that Senator Teller shall retire from the Committee on Finance and resume his old place on the Judiciary Committee. This will leave three Democratic vacancies on the Finance Committee and they will be filled by the appointment of Senators Dubois, Gorman and Balley.
